NOTICE

New Public Affairs Officer – Dan Pattarini

The Office of Foreign Missions is pleased to announce the appointment of Daniel M. Pattarini as its first Public Affairs Officer.

Daniel M. Pattarini brings over two decades of experience in public affairs and international education to his role as the newly established Public Affairs Officer for the Office of Foreign Missions. A member of the Foreign Service since 2009, his prior assignments have focused primarily on the Department's public diplomacy efforts. Most recently, Mr. Pattarini served as an Outreach Officer in the Bureau of Consular Affairs' Office of Public and Congressional Affairs providing strategic communications expertise on a myriad of Consular issues ranging from passports to visas to the safety and security of U.S. citizens overseas.

His overseas assignments include service as the Public Affairs Officer at the U.S. Embassy in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg (2016-19); Environment, Science, Technology and Health Officer in Baghdad, Iraq (2014-15); Assistant Cultural Affairs Officer and Vice-Consul in Cairo, Egypt (2012-14); and Deputy Public Affairs Officer in Muscat, Oman (2009-11). Mr. Pattarini speaks Arabic and French. He holds a B.A. in Government from the College of William & Mary and an M.A in International Affairs from American University. He and his wife Kathryn have three children.

Mr. Pattarini's office is located at the Harry S Truman Building, room 2236. He can be reached by telephone at (202) 647-3417.

Questions concerning this or other matters may be directed to OFM by telephone at (202) 647-3417 or by electronic mail at OFM-Info@state.gov.
